Update to London Stock Exchange Membership Price List

---

The Annual Membership Fees will be amended as follows:

- Annual Fee: £18,000 per annum;
- Access Provider Annual Membership Fee: £36,000 per annum
  - As a reminder, the Access Provider Fee is applicable to member firms that facilitate access to on-book trading services to sell side firms through the member's direct connection to London Stock Exchange's order book(s). This includes services such as Direct Market Access (DMA), Algorithmic Trading, and Sponsored Access.

Sell-side firms refer to entities that provide trading and execution services to other firms.

The Access Provider Fee is not applicable to member firms that provide access only to sell-side firms, which are part of the same group as the member firm.

The amendments will come into effect on 1 January 2020.
