Depositary receipts

4.6 An issuer of depositary receipts admitted to trading must ensure that their deposit agreements require the depositary bank to provide to the Exchange each quarter, information on the number of securities issued and outstanding. This information should be provided to [@lseg.com] on the first business day of January, April, July and October in respect of the preceding calendar quarter. It has in place arrangements to provide to the Exchange each quarter, information on the number of securities issued and outstanding. An issuer of depositary receipts must also, upon request from the Exchange, provide an end of day number of securities issued and outstanding at any other time that the Exchange considers appropriate.

Guidance to Rule:

The quarterly information required under this rule is the quarterly average of each end of business day number of issued and outstanding depositary receipts. The information must be provided to [@lseg.com] on the first business day of January, April, July and October in respect of the preceding calendar quarter. An issuer of depositary receipts may prefer to instruct their depositary bank to make this information available to the Exchange on their behalf.

Issuers of depositary receipts shall have until 31 December 2016 to put in place arrangements in order to comply with this rule (i.e. the first quarterly information will be due on the first business day of April 2017 in respect of the preceding calendar quarter).

SCHEDULE 6 – ADMISSION TO TRADING ONLY

An issuer who seeks to admit its securities to ATT Only must discuss its eligibility with the Exchange in the context of whether it is more appropriate for admission to other Exchange markets. The Exchange retains sole discretion to refuse an application for admission to trading to ATT Only if it considers that the securities are better suited to another of the Exchange’s markets or segments.

In addition to the requirements of the Standards, this Schedule applies to issuers applying to admit securities, or with securities admitted, to trading on ATT Only.

For the avoidance of doubt, the term “issuer” as used in the Standards and in this Schedule shall mean the issuer of the underlying securities which the unlisted DRs represent.

AT ADMISSION

All securities

1. The issuer must be admitted to a suitable exchange, and the issuer must be in continuing compliance with such exchange’s standards.
2. The issuer's securities must not have been and must not be offered to the public in the EEA within the meaning of the Prospectus Directive.

3. There must be a sufficient number of registered holders of the securities to be admitted to provide an orderly market in the securities following admission.

4. The issuer’s securities must not have been admitted to any of the Exchange’s other primary markets in the 24 months prior to the date of an application for ATT Only being made.

5. The issuer must be duly incorporated or otherwise validly established and must operate in conformity with its constitution.

Additional obligations for issuers of unlisted DRs

An issuer can apply to admit depositary receipts where the underlying securities which the unlisted DRs represent are listed on a suitable exchange. For the avoidance of doubt, the term “Issuer” as used in the Standards and in this Schedule shall mean the issuer of the underlying securities which the unlisted DRs admitted to trading represent.

6. Unlisted DRs must be issued by a depositary bank that the Exchange considers acceptable and must be sponsored by the issuer.

7. Unlisted DRs must represent underlying securities which are admitted to a suitable exchange, and the issuer must be in continuing compliance with such exchange’s standards.

8. The issuer of unlisted DRs must be part of a depositary receipt issue programme with:
   a) a minimum initial value of at least £700,000
   b) a) a maximum available issue value (headroom) of at least £40 million; and
   c) b) at least 25% of the unlisted DRs issuer’s securities that such depositary receipts represent at the time of admission being are in public hands1, in public hands within the meaning of Listing Rule 18.2.8.

9. The issuer must be, and (if admission is approved) must continue to be, in compliance with Listing Rules 18.2.3, 4 and 5 inclusive, as if they applied, and apply to it.

10. The issuer must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the depositary bank—has arrangements so that (if admission is approved) it is and able to continue to, comply or procure compliance with Listing Rules 2.2.2 (validity) and 2.2.4 (transferability), 9.5.15 and 9.5.16 (documents of title) and 18.2.13—14 (additional requirements for a depositary) inclusive, as if they applied and apply to the depositary bank and the unlisted DRs it is issuing.

1 An issuer should refer to the definition of ‘in public hands’ in Schedule 5. This definition will be moved to the Glossary should this proposal be adopted and will clarify that the requirement in that definition to be distributed to the public in one or more EEA States does not apply to issuers of unlisted DRs.
11. There must be in place at admission and at all times whilst admission continues, a deposit agreement in place between the depositary bank and the issuer which should be the sole document setting out all key terms relating to the issue of the unlisted DRs.

12. The deposit agreement must include provisions relating to: fees and expenses applicable to holders and the issuer; rights and obligations of holders; rights and obligations of the depositary bank and the issuer; matters relating to the deposit of the underlying shares; dividend and distribution procedures; voting procedures, including as to voting instructions and record dates; provisions relating to changes in issued underlying shares and the ratio of unlisted DRs to underlying shares; foreign currency exchange considerations; execution, delivery, transfer, surrender and exchange provisions; information rights; any agreed indemnities and other protections; taxation; termination of the deposit agreement, resignation or removal of the depositary bank or similar.

13. The deposit agreement should not restrict an issuer's ability to comply with the Standards. Therefore, an issuer must give consideration as to whether the deposit agreement must give the issuer rights in relation to the depositary bank restricts its ability in order to enable the issuer to comply with its obligations to the Exchange under these Standards in relation to the unlisted DRs, including without limitation the issuer's obligations in relation to disclosures required by it under this Schedule, compliance with the Listing Rules set out in paragraph 10 above and the proper processing of ongoing corporate actions in respect of the unlisted DRs.
